

Announcing:
The 2008 AAP Philadelphia Salon
Sponsored by
The American Academy of Psychotherapists (AAP)

Theme:

We will look at one aspect of the theme for this year's 2008 I & C (AAP's Annual Conference in Savannah, GA to be held Nov. 12-16th, 2008): "Millennium III: Time, Transition and THE HUMAN CONDITION"
There will be a presentation, discussion and an exploration of our roles as therapists in the changing world in which we live.

Co-Hosted by:

Diane Shaffer and Matthew Leary

Where:

308 Rutgers Avenue, Swarthmore, PA
(Diane Shaffer's Home)

Located minutes from Swarthmore College and from the R3 SEPTA Swarthmore train station

When:

Saturday, September 20th, 4-7pm

Details:

The Salon will be an intimate evening with stimulating conversation and wonderful food! If you are new to AAP, please take the time to find out more about our organization at www.aapweb.com. AAP is dedicated to fostering the development of the therapist at all levels...from graduate students to seasoned veterans. By exploring the relationship between ourselves and the process of psychotherapy, AAP events encourage therapists and students to appreciate the complexity and the art of what we do and what we hope to do.

Questions:

Please feel free to contact either:

Diane: dchristieshaffer@yahoo.com

cell phone: (610) 328-9066

or

Matthew: mleary@immaculata.edu

More details to follow! If you would like to be included in future e-mails and mailings, please email aap@mgmt4u.com with your contact information. If you know of any other therapists or students who would be interested in joining us for the evening, please forward their contact info and we will include them in future e-mails as well.

We look forward to seeing you!