

The Southern Region of
The American Academy of Psychotherapists

is proud to invite you to an evening salon and pot luck.

Experiential Group Psychotherapy

Debbara J. Dingman, Ph.D. and Avrum G. Weiss, Ph.D.

In this Salon, we will lead a demonstration group. We hope to illustrate two principles of experiential psychotherapy:

1. We are most fully alive when we have access to the complete range of our experience.
2. We have access to the full range of our experience only in intimate relationships with others.

Avrum and Debbara are long-term AAP members who have been co-leading consultation and psychotherapy groups for over 20 years at Pine River Psychotherapy Associates in Atlanta.

If you want to volunteer to be a part of the demonstration group, please email Avrum, agweiss@comcast.net.
