

AAP Salon in Boston. Sunday, May 20th, 2018. 9:30 to 2.

“Creating Connections: Finding Common Ground”

Host: Doris Jackson. Process group leaders Debra Kuhn-Goetz and Hallie Lovett.

A Boston area AAP Salon will be held at the home of Doris Jackson at 25 Eliot Street in Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, 02130, on Sunday, May 20th, from 9:30 to 2. We invite all AAP members and especially any Boston area or New England colleagues to gather with us for a half-day meeting on the theme of “Creating Connections: Finding Common Ground.”

We are thrilled that Hallie Lovett and Debra Kuhn-Goetz have agreed to co-lead a two hour process group for our attendees. Lunch will be provided, and the day will close with an AAP style community meeting from 1 to 2 PM. We especially encourage any who might just be learning about the Academy to come and sample our community.

Our agenda begins with coffee and hello’s at 9:30. The process group, which will include all attendees, will start at ten. This group will revolve around our theme: “Creating Connections; Finding common ground.” We will have a vegetarian-friendly lunch beginning at noon, then our closing from one to two.

There is no charge for this event, but please RSVP to Doris Jackson at dorisj@comcast.net
