The new Music City Chapter of the American Academy of Psychotherapists (AAP) presents a Spring Salon in Nashville, Tennessee. This salon will be hosted by Dan Goldstein and Renee Burwell and will be held at the offices of Nashville Psych in Hillsboro Village at 2200 21st Avenue S, Suite 306, on Friday, May 10th, from 5:00 pm – 9:00 pm. Nashville area therapists who are motivated by personal growth are especially encouraged to attend. The event is open to AAP Members and non-members.

At 5:00 pm, enjoy refreshments and a light dinner, learn more about AAP and network with local colleagues. At 6:00 pm, join Daniel Goldstein and Renee Burwell in a 2.5 hour process group. This group will revolve around the theme: “Insatiable: Hunger for Connection.” Attendees will explore their own ambivalence between their longing for connection and fear of rejection. We will wrap up at 8:30 pm and answer any questions about becoming a part of the AAP community.
