

SEPT
25

AAP SALON

Our Implicit Bias

Friday, September
25th, 2020 at 7:00
p.m. to 8:45pm
Register by Sept 11.

Contact:
bgoelapc@gmail.com
470-357-9300

The Southern Region of The American Academy of Psychotherapists is proud to invite you to an ONLINE evening salon. Come join our esteemed colleagues, Kavita Avula and Bradley Lake for a challenging and experiential evening.

Wherein we as therapists attend to our implicit bias including;

- *Anti-racism
- *White fragility
- *Micro-aggressions

Kindly Register using this link (limited space) :

<https://bgoel.aidaform.com/templates-en-event-registration-form>

AAP is a multidisciplinary community of psychotherapists dedicated to developing the person of the therapist.

No charge for admission but space is limited. Please register on the link mentioned above by Sept. 11 Registered Participants will receive a zoom invitation the day before the event.

About the Presenters

Bradley Lake, LICSW, LCSW-C is a licensed clinical social worker who has been in private practice for over thirty years, providing psychotherapy to individuals, couples and groups. For more than fifteen years he has been supervising clinicians. Bradley is on the faculty of National Group Psychotherapy Institute (NGPI) at the Washington School of Psychiatry (WSP) and is the Small Group Team Leader. Mr. Lake has also served on a number of boards of psychotherapy organizations.

Kavita Avula, PSYD, is a licensed clinical psychologist who specializes in international and cross-cultural psychology, organizational resilience, trauma healing, and critical incident response. President of the Puget Sound Group Psychotherapy Network, and a member of the nationally recognized faculty of the Washington School of Psychiatry's National Group Psychotherapy Institute, she serves on the Large Group Team, a team that facilitates experiential learning about understanding underlying dynamics that motivate behavior in society.